Thank You, in advance for your participation in the club. The players are counting on us, as adults and parents, to be role models, that will assist them in establishing a club in which they will be proud to be a part of. For it is the desire of these players to be able to compete and represent their sport and their school. As parents and leaders we are their true role models. It is our responsibility to fulfill our obligation to our children. One must be unselfish to participate.
